How We Will Calculate Your Balance: The method used to calculate your balance is called "average daily balance (including new purchases)." See Cardholder Agreement for more details.
Variable Rate Information: Your APRs will vary with the market based on the Prime Rate. The Prime Rate is the highest FI prime loan rate as published by the Wall Street Journal in its Money Rates Section on the 14th day (or the next business day if the 14th is not a business day) of the calendar month preceding the first day of the billing period. If the Periodic Rate(s) and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate(s) increase, your interest charges will increase and your minimum payment may be greater.
Balance Transfers: Most balance transfers will post to your account within 21 business days. The time frame is dependent on how quickly the payee processes the transferred amount. Please continue to make payment on that account until you know the transferred amount has posted and the balance has been paid. If the total amount you request exceeds your available balance, we may send full or partial payments to your creditors in the order you provide them to us. Balance transfers do not earn rewards.
Loss of Introductory APR: We may end your introductory APR and apply the Penalty APR if you make a late payment.
Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in the Cardholder Agreement that will be provided to you before you can begin using your new card.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW

ACCOUNT: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

LATE FEE: If we do not receive an amount equal to or greater than your Minimum Payment Due by the Payment Due Date shown on your Periodic Statement, a late payment fee in the amount set forth on the Credit Terms provided may be imposed.

CARDHOLDER AGREEMENT: By keeping, using or permitting others to use the account or any card, you agree to the terms of the Cardholder Agreement, which will be sent with the card. You also agree that the Cardholder Agreement and the account are governed by Arkansas and Federal law. The terms of your account, including rates and fees, are subject to change to the extent permitted by law.

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT: (Agreement to Arbitrate) Arbitration is a method of deciding disputes outside the court system. Your Cardholder Agreement will include an Arbitration Provision (the "Provision"), which governs when and how any disputes you and we may have will be arbitrated instead of decided in court.
